Charles Waller

Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle.

Michaelangelo

How many things by season season'd are to their right praise and true perfection?

Shakespeare

A man cannot have an idea of perfection in another, which he was never sensible in himself.

Steele

In this broad earth of ours, amid the measureless gróssness and the slag, enclosed and safe within its central heart, nestles the seed perfection.

Walt Whitman.

'Tis the season to be jolly!

Don't tell me you didn't write this . . . Sugarbear!

Ouch! Who pinched me?

Something just wiggled and it wasn't my potatoe.

Darn! Now where is my zymurgy text book?

Here's Sandy Dinkin introducing her favorite snack, wheat thins!

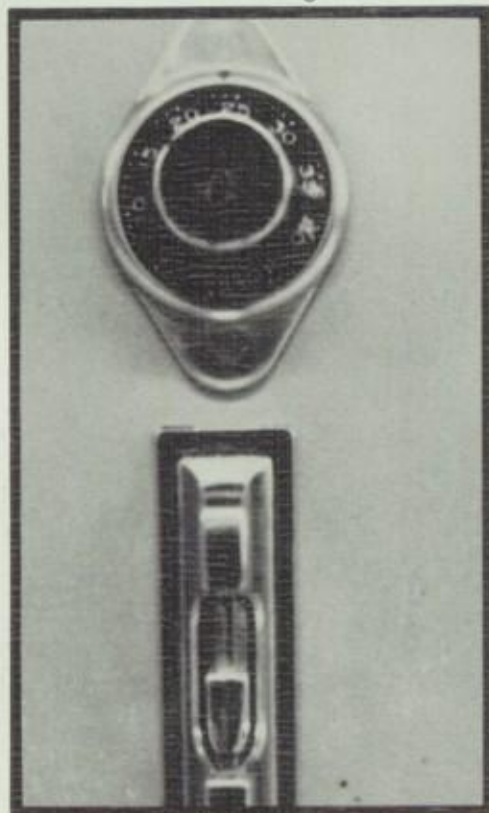

Indi-gestion

Look at the benders on that tomatoe!!!

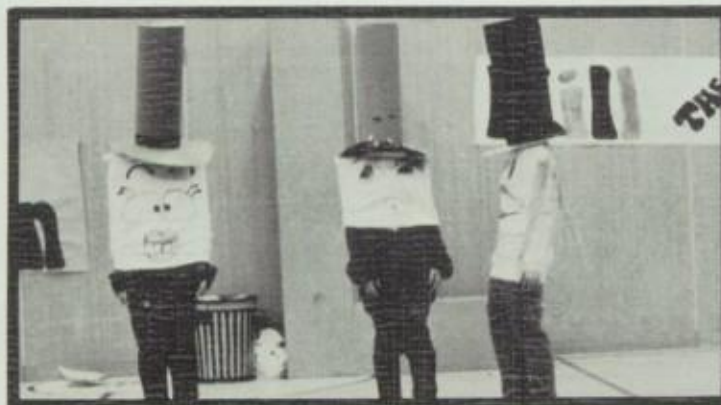

It's dangerous splitting the atom.

36-24-36

No Comment!

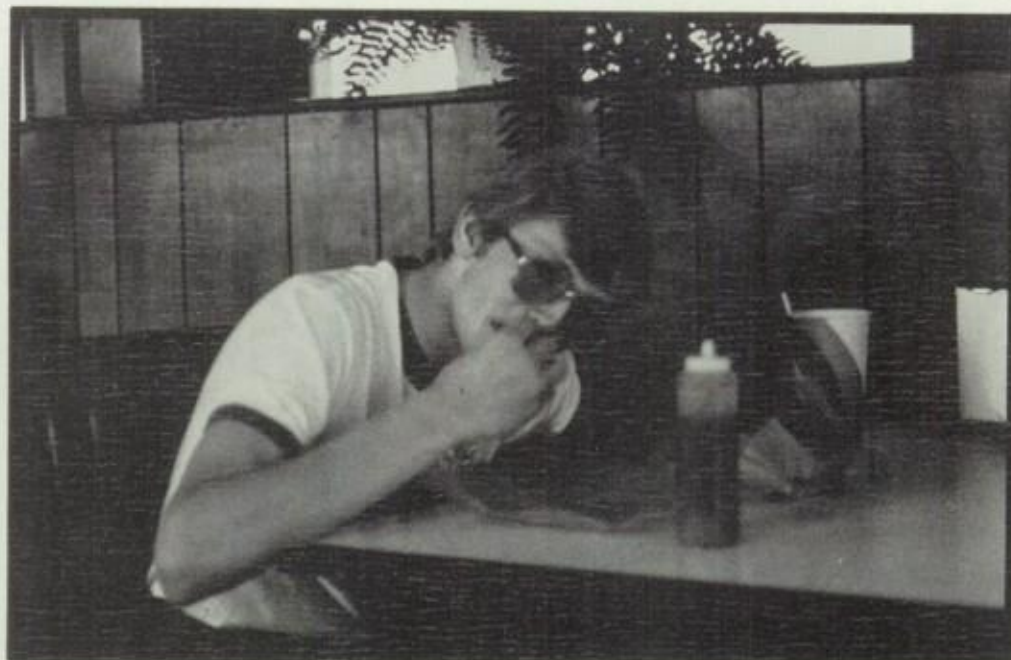

Who said sophomores are normal?

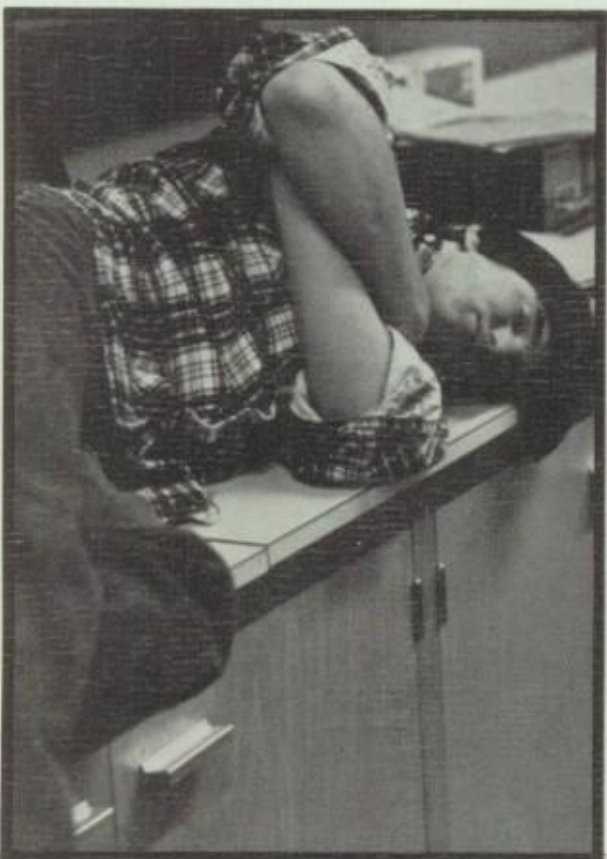

Ooooh! What a man!!

Suuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu-eeeeeeeeeeeeeee!!!

Sleeping yes, beauty no!!!

Alright! Who's dog?

How do you spell relief?

Can I talk to you about . . . diarrhea?

Once a jock, always a jock!

Catching flies!

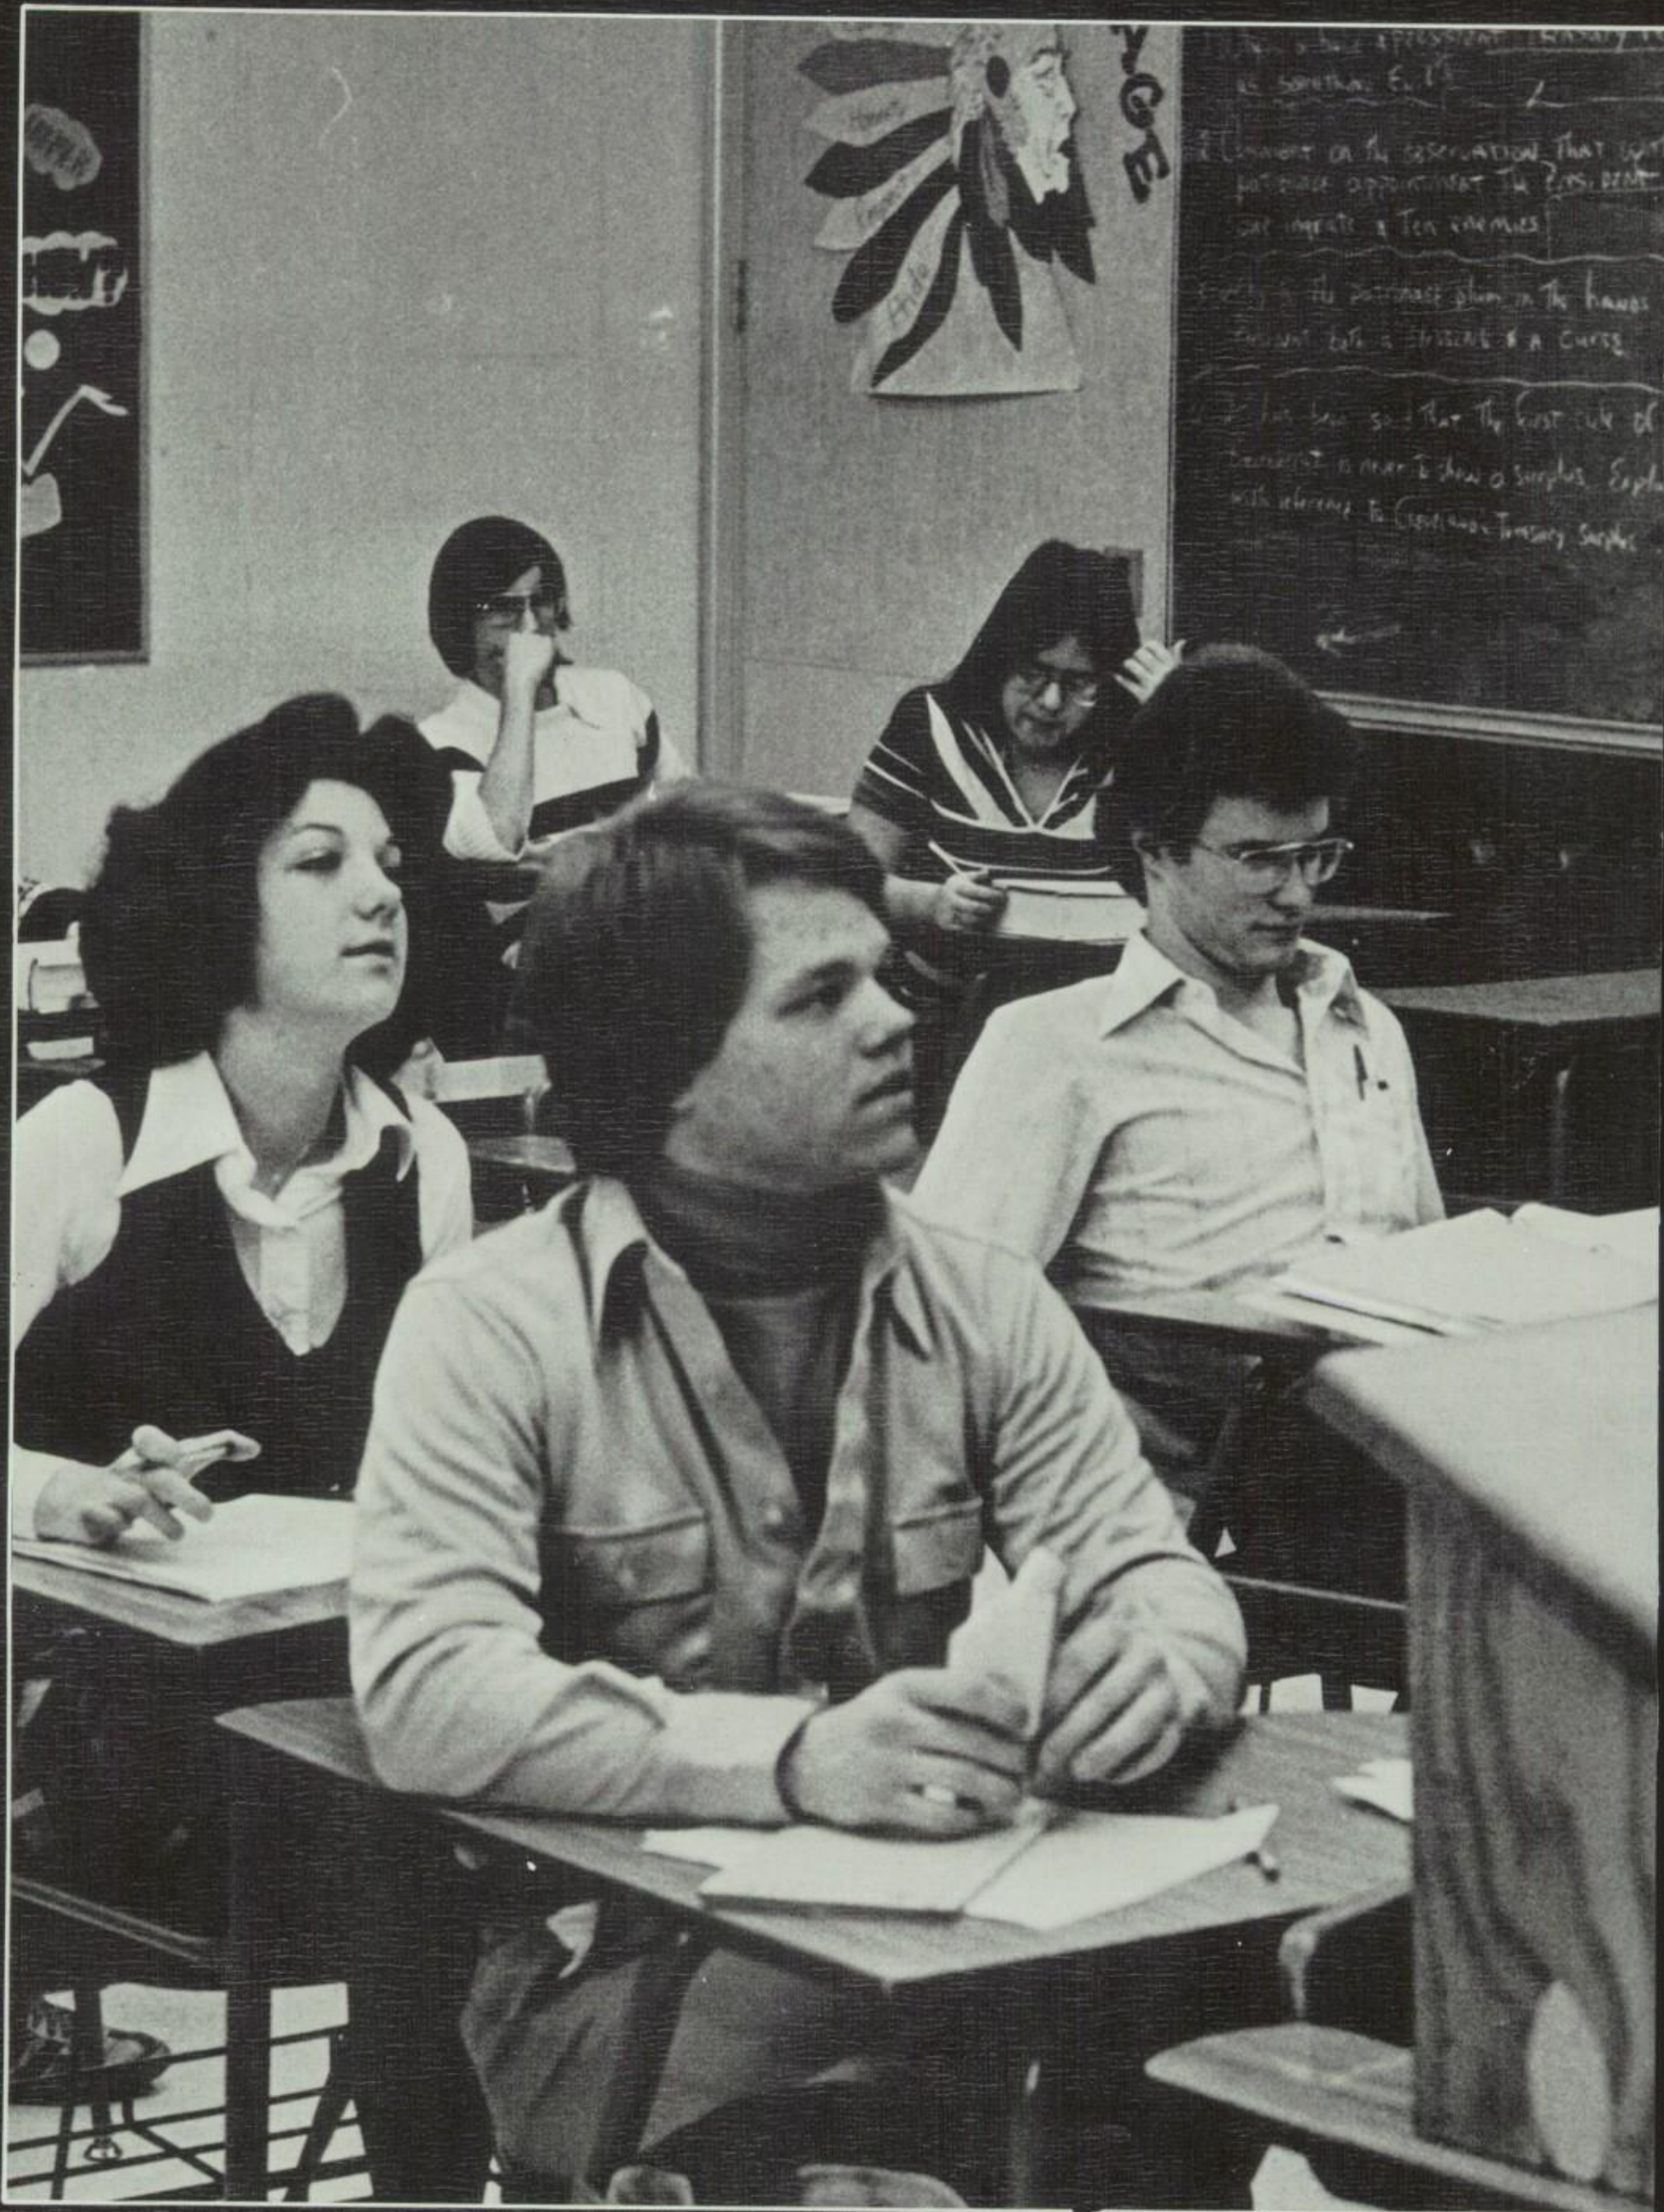

Darn! I should have used Lisa's denture-grip!!

. . . and he told me to put it in my ear!

ORIGINAL SCHOOL SONG

Faithful Lancers
Proudly at the foe
Sing thy praises loud on every score.

Yes, we hail thee,
Ne'er we'll fail thee,
Teamwork will drive our Lancers (L.H.S.)
And in Vic'try laurels for our fame,
As the Romans, praise in high acclaim.
Till all 'round us laud our name
Oh navy blue and blue.

(Chorus)
Layton is the high school of our choice.
Shout, oh shout, Men,
With all your heart and voice.
Grant unto her honor-may she ever be.
Oh, we'll forever cherish
Layton High School.

PERFECTION

Some say that life is just a test,
That I should try to do my best . . . to pass.

Some think their name's to be unfurled
And paraded in front of this whole world . . . to see.

So many need their name in lights
While every day is filled with fights . . . to get there.

Others love to splash their name
On society pages that blare their fame . . . to all.

But my standards are humbler still,
To live my best from now until . . . I die.

I don't think I really need
A bank account that's filled by greed . . . and sin.

Or a giant mansion with a country view
And in the drive a Rolls or two . . . for all to see.

To rid my life of pretense and sham
And get a glimpse of who I really am . . . will do.

And later, as my arms reach out
To find what this world's all about . . . I'll care.

To help someone without a show,
to give when men will never know . . . 'twas me.

And without a thought of looking grand,
To you I'll hold a steady hand . . . and pull.

As years go by I'll try to teach
These truths of life as we try to reach . . . PERFECTION.
